

Nonprofit organizations face two overarching challenges: how to meet the needs of those they serve, and how to satisfy the demands of those who regulate, govern and fund them.

From the IRS and other governmental agencies to donors and boards of directors, numerous entities affect nonprofit organizations' functionality. HG&K helps nonprofits carry out their mission. We also assist organizations in obtaining nonprofit status ~ a very specialized undertaking.

Today we are a preeminent provider of services to nonprofits, having built our reputation on decades of experience, continuing professional education, and our track record as a trusted advisor. In a sector that demands accountability, HG&K defines it.
